PETITION TO DETERMINE PARENTAL RELATIONSHIP

Forms are available online at: www.courts.ca.gov

GENERAL INFORMATION

A Petition to Determine Parental Relationship (FL-200) is used for individuals who were not married to the other parent of their child, the biological father was not listed on the birth certificate as the father, he did not sign the Voluntary Declaration of Paternity or Parentage when the child was born, and there is no child support Judgment establishing parentage. The Petition will establish the two parties as the parents of the child(ren) named and will allow you to obtain orders about child custody, visitation, and/or child support.

There are jurisdictional requirements that must be met before the court can make child custody orders. These requirements include residency in this state for six months before filing the petition, and that there is no other state that has jurisdiction to make orders about the custody of this child.

The following forms are used when filing a Petition to Determine Parental Relationship:

- FL-200 Petition to Determine Parental Relationship
- FL-311 Child Custody and Visitation Application Attachment: This attachment is used to tell the Court what child custody and/or parenting plan you would like the Court to order.
- FL-105 Declaration Under UCCJEA: This form tells the Court where the child has been living for the past five years in addition to giving the Court information on any other cases that may exist.
- FL-210 Summons: This notifies the other party that he/she is being sued and also contains some standard restraining orders that apply TO BOTH OF YOU.
- FL-115 Proof of Service of Summons: This form is very important because it determines the date by which the Court has jurisdiction over the other party.

You will also need these BLANK forms to serve on the Other Party:

- FL-220 BLANK Response: (Do not fill this out. It is for the Other Party)
- FL-105 BLANK Declaration Under UCCJEA: (Do not fill this out. It is for the Other Party)

The following are optional forms that are available online or at the Self-Help Center:

- FL-341(C) Children's Holiday Schedule Attachment (Optional Attachment)
- FL-341(D) Additional Provisions-Physical Custody Attachment (Optional Attachment)
- FL-341(E) Joint Legal Custody Attachment (Optional Attachment)

NOTICE: If you have a child from this relationship, the court is required to order child support based upon the income of both parents. Support normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise, the child support order will be based upon information supplied by the other parent. Any party required to pay child support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal" rate, which is currently 10 percent.

This section is for information only and is not a part of your request for orders:

California's public policies and law on child custody and visitation include that:

- In general, children should have frequent and continuing contact with their parents, and parents should be encouraged to share the responsibility of raising their children, except when domestic abuse has happened or contact with a parent is not in the best interests of the children.
- When making any orders about physical and legal custody and visitation (parenting time), the court must consider the best interests of the child, which primarily include the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- If a parent has been abusive, judges use laws to help protect children when deciding to make orders about child custody and visitation (parenting time). A judge may deny an abusive parent custody or unsupervised visitation with a child.
- Children have the right to be safe and free from abuse.
- A child's exposure to domestic violence and domestic violence committed where a child lives are detrimental to the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- For more information, read selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/child-custody#best-interest and selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/domestic-violence-child-custody

THIS RESTRAINING ORDER APPLIES TO YOU, AS WELL AS THE OTHER PARTY

Starting immediately, you and every other party are restrained from removing from the state, or applying for a passport for, the minor child or children for whom this action seeks to establish a parent-child relationship or a custody order without the prior written consent of every other party or an order of the court.
