

RESPONSE TO PETITION TO DETERMINE PARENTAL RELATIONSHIP

Forms are available online at: www.courts.ca.gov

GENERAL INFORMATION

The purpose of a Response to Petition to Determine Parental Relationship (FL-220) is to provide you an opportunity to respond to a parentage case. A Response allows someone to address parentage and object to anything else requested in the Petition.

Along with the Petition, you will also be served with a Summons. It is important to read the STANDARD RESTRAINING ORDERS on the back of the Summons, as these will apply to you once you have been served. You should also be served with a Notice of Status Conference that provides you with your first status review court date and a Referral to Family Court Services.

You have thirty (30) days from the DATE YOU WERE SERVED to respond to the Petition. If you DO NOT RESPOND within the thirty (30) days, the other party has the right to request a Default Judgment and the Court may grant everything requested in the Petition.

You will need the following:

- FL-220 Response to Petition to Determine Parental Relationship
- FL-311 Child Custody and Visitation Application Attachment
- FL-105 Declaration Under UCCJEA
- FL-335 Proof of Service by Mail

NOTICE: If you have a child from this relationship, the court is required to order child support based upon the income of both parents. Support normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise, the child support order will be based upon information supplied by the other parent. This section is for information only and is not a part of your request for orders:

California's public policies and law on child custody and visitation include that:

- In general, children should have frequent and continuing contact with their parents, and parents should be encouraged to share the responsibility of raising their children, except when domestic abuse has happened or contact with a parent is not in the best interests of the children.
- When making any orders about physical and legal custody and visitation (parenting time), the court must consider the best interests of the child, which primarily include the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- If a parent has been abusive, judges use laws to help protect children when deciding to make orders about child custody and visitation (parenting time). A judge may deny an abusive parent custody or unsupervised visitation with a child.
- Children have the right to be safe and free from abuse.
- A child's exposure to domestic violence and domestic violence committed where a child lives are detrimental to the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- For more information, read selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/child-custody#best-interest and selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/domestic-violence-child-custody
